DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-10 are currently pending in the instant application.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-8 and 10 drawn to products of the formula I variously classified in classes 514, 544, 546 and 548.
- II. Claim 9 drawn to methods of use for the products of the formula I variously classified in class 514.

The above groups are identified as general areas and, accordingly, as groups they are independent or distinct since inventions I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product as can be seen by the instant specification pages 1-7, which discloses many references (such as US Patent No. 5,256,668, which discloses a series of 6-aminopyrimidones that possess anti-viral activity against RSV) that disclose agents known to inhibit respiratory syncytial virus.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group II is not required for Group I, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Art Unit: 1626

The above groups themselves are inclusive of patentably distinct subject matter. Accordingly, along with the election of one of the above groups the following action is also taken.

Claims 1, 9 and 10 are generic to a plurality of disclosed patentably distinct species comprising for example the compounds of (1) example 1, page 29, (2) example 25, page 56, (3) example 39, page 64, (4) example 53, page 75, (5) example 156, page 170, (6) example 175, page 188, etc., the methods of treating Respiratory syncytial virus (RSV) with the compounds of (7) example 188, page 199, (8) example 202, page 208, etc. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species, even though this requirement is traversed.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Upon the election of a single disclosed species, a generic concept inclusive of the elected species will be identified by the Examiner for examination along with the elected species.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined and an election of a single disclosed species even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143). It is noted, however, that if the product claims of invention I are elected and subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims, which depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be rejoined (i.e. group II, claims 9).

Art Unit: 1626

An attempt was made to present this requirement telephonically but did not result in an election being made.
